1. It is reported that proposals for the integration of Colombian Communism into a united party are under serious consideration by both the Partido Comunista de Colombia (PCC) and the Partido Comunista Obrero (PCO) as a result of the increased anti-Communist pressure being exerted since the 9 April 1978 incidents.
2. The PCO proposes the creation of a combined committee of the two Communist parties to work out a democratic and anti-imperialist program. It has been proposed that the program be submitted for discussion by the basic organizations of both parties and by the people in a Unity Congress.
